ORDER OF PUBLICATION

In the Circuit Court of Buchanan County, Missouri, to the May term, 1916, thereof.
George Caschert, plaintiff, vs. David L.
Bartlett, and the unknown heirs, executors, administrators, consort, devisees, donees, legatees, immediate, remote, voluntary and involuntary grantees, and assigns of John Ullman, deceased.
Now, on this 25th day of January, 1916, comes plaintiff by his attorneys, and it appearing to the satisfaction of the Circuit Court of Buchanan County, Missouri, that plaintiff has filed in this court his petition in the above named cause duly verified by affidavit, wherein he alleges that he is the owner of Lot Fourteen (14), Block Twenty-seven (27), in South St. Joseph, an addition to the City of St. Joseph, Missouri, and that David L. Bartlett, trustee, and John Ullman were grantees in a certain trust deed executed by Joseph Caschert and Anna Caschert, husband and wife, conveying Lot 14, Block 27, in South St. Joseph, an addition to the City of St. Joseph, Missouri, to secure $100.00 due one year after date, with interest at 10 per cent., which said deed is found of record in Book 128, Page 506, of the Deed Records of Buchanan County, Missouri.
That the unknown defendants in this cause derived their title or claims, if any, to said real estate as executors, administrators, heirs, consort, devisees, donees, legatees, immediate, remote, voluntary and involuntary grantees or assigns of the said John Ullman.
That the said unknown defendants are making some claim to some interest in the aforesaid real estate by virtue of the deed of trust as aforesaid; that in fact the defendants have no interest in the said real estate, and that the said unknown defendants are non-residents of the State of Missouri.
It is therefore ordered by the Court that said defendants be notified by publication as required by law that the plaintiff has commenced his suit in this court against all the said defendants by petition and affidavit, the object and general nature of which is that the interests of plaintiff and defendant in the aforesaid real estate be tried, ascertained and determined, and that the cloud caused by the deed of trust aforesaid be removed and that plaintiff's title to the aforesaid real estate be quieted, and to the court may seem more just and proper in the premises, and that unless said defendants be and appear at the next term of this court to be begun and held at the Court House in the City of St. Joseph, Buchanan County, Missouri, on the 1st day of May, 1916, on or before the third day of said term, to answer the petition of plaintiff, the same will be taken as confessed as to them and judgment rendered accordingly.

It is further ordered that a copy of this order be published in the St. Joseph Observer, a newspaper published in said Buchanan County, Missouri, for four weeks successively, the last insertion of which is to be at least fifteen days before the commencement of the May, 1916 term of said Court, as aforesaid.

In the Buchanan County Circuit Court to the May term, A. D. 1916.
Maggie Newberry, plaintiff, vs. William E. Newberry, defendant.
Now at this day came the plaintiff, by her attorney, and it appearing to the satisfaction of the Circuit Court that said defendant, William E. Newberry, is a non-resident of the State of Missouri, and does not reside therein, it is ordered that said non-resident defendant be notified by publication, as required by law, that said plaintiff has commenced her suit in this court against him, and that said defendant is notified by publication and by petition and affidavit, the object and general nature of which is to obtain a decree of divorce from the defendant on the ground that defendant has offered to plaintiff such indignities as to render her condition in life intolerable, in this cause. That the defendant has refused throughout their married life to support the plaintiff and furnish her with the reasonable necessities of life, although he was at all times an able-bodied man and capable of earning a livelihood; that the plaintiff was compelled to support herself and her two children; that the defendant possessed a violent and ungovernable temper; that he committed adultery with another woman, and that he has been drunk and indecent; that on numerous occasions he slapped, struck and beat the plaintiff, and that he has been violent and drunk for the space of more than one whole year next before the filing of this petition in this court; and that said defendant, William E. Newberry, shall be and appear at the next term of this Court to be begun and held at the Court House in the City of St. Joseph, in Buchanan County, State of Missouri, on the first day of May, 1916, on or before
the third day of said term, to answer the petition of plaintiff, the same will be taken as confessed as to him and judgment rendered accordingly.
It is further ordered that a copy of
Observer, a newspaper published in the County of Buchanan, for four weeks successively, the last insertion of which to be at least fifteen days before the next May, 1916, term of this Court.

In the Circuit Court in and for Buchanan County, Missouri, May term, 1916 State of Missouri, County of Buchanan ss.
Laetta Adams and Ella Reed, plaintiffs, vs. Franklin Laveale Anderson and Henry A. Hunter, defendants.
Now at this day came the plaintiffs by their attorneys, and file their petition herein duly verified by affidavit, in which said petition it is alleged, among other things, that the above named defendants, Franklin Laveale Anderson and Henry A. Hunter, are both non-residents of the State of Missouri, and that the ordinary process of law cannot be served upon them in this state. It is therefore now here ordered by the undersigned Clerk of the Circuit Court in and for Buchanan County, Missouri, in vacation, that said non-resident defendants be notified by publication as required by law, that plaintiffs have commenced their suit in said court against said defendants by petition and affidavit, the object and general nature of which is to have said First, to have the Court set aside and adjudge void and of no effect two certain deeds purporting to convey certain real estate, situated, lying and being in the County of Buchanan and State of Missouri, and specifically described in petition as follows, to-wit: The West one hundred and eighteen (118) feet of Lot six (6) in Block twenty (20) of Robinson's Addition, an addition to the City of St. Joseph, Missouri, and said deeds being dated July 5th, 1913, and recorded in the deed records of Buchanan County, Missouri, in Book 427 at page 381 and executed and delivered by Mattie Anderson and Franklin Laveale Anderson, her husband, to Henry A.
Hunter, and the other said deed being dated the 25th day of July, 1913, and recorded in the deed records of Buchanan County, Missouri, in Book 427 at page 382, and executed and delivered by Henry A. Hunter to Franklin Laveale Anderson and Mattie Anderson, which said last mentioned deed conveyed said real estate to the grantees therein named as joint tenants with the right of survivorship; second, and the further object and nature of said suit is to have the Court by its judgment and decree divest the title to an undivided one-half of the above described real estate out of defendant Franklin Laveale Anderson and vest the same in plaintiffs in said suit; and third, in said petition said plaintiffs ask for such other and further relief as to the Court may seem right, it being asked in said petition that said deeds be set aside, and said title divested out of defendant Franklin Laveale Anderson and vested in plaintiffs, and other relief granted to plaintiffs, all as hereinbefore stated on the ground that both the aforesaid deeds were executed without any consideration whatever therefor, and that at the time of the execution and delivery of said deed from Mattie Anderson and her husband to defendant Henry A. Hunter, said Mattie Anderson was of unsound mind and wholly incompetent to execute a valid conveyance of the property described in said deed, and that defendant Franklin Laveale Anderson, taking advantage of his position as husband of said Mattie Anderson and of the intimate relations existing between them as husband and wife, and taking advantage of her weakened mental condition for the purpose of obtaining said real estate for himself, and for the purpose of defrauding said Mattie Anderson, and to defraud the plaintiffs herein as heirs at law of said Mattie Anderson, did by fraudulent solicitations and persuasion and undue influence exerted over her, induce the said Mattie Anderson to execute and deliver said last mentioned deed, and thereby said Mattie Anderson executed and delivered said deed of conveyance from defendant Henry A. Hunter to said Franklin Laveale Anderson and Mattie Anderson, which said deed was executed pursuant to and as a part of the wrongful and fraudulent acts and purposes of defendant Franklin Laveale Anderson as aforesaid; it being further alleged in said petition that said Mattie Anderson has departed this life intestate, leaving surviving her only heirs the above named plaintiffs and her surviving husband, defendant Franklin Laveale Anderson.
It is further ordered that said defendants, Franklin Laveale Anderson and Henry A. Hunter, be further notified that unless they shall be and appear at the next term of said circuit court to be begun and held at the Court House in the City of Buchanan County, Missouri, on the first day of May, 1916, on or before the third day of said term, the same will be taken as confessed as to them and judgment and decree rendered accordingly.
It is further ordered that a copy of
Observer, a newspaper printed and published in the County of Buchanan and State of Missouri, for four weeks suc-
be at least fifteen days before the beginning of the next May, 1916, term of this Court.

MISCHA ELMAN COMING SOON

There is little rest for the successful concert artist, particularly if he be an instrumentalist. Incessant travel is his lot. A case in point is the present activity of Mischa Elman, the Russian violinist, who is touring this country and billed to appear at the Auditorium Monday evening, March 27, under the local management of Mrs. Francis Henry Hill.

Recently Mr. Elman had a respite of two days in New York after some strenuous traveling, and he commented upon it humorously. "What is the matter?" he inquired of his managers, the Wolfsohn Musical Bureau. "How does it happen that I am not playing today?" The youthful genius had just returned from a tour of twelve cities lasting the same number of days. This tour embraced New York, Philadelphia, Columbus, Wheeling, Johnstown, Washington, Louisville, Dayton, Buffalo, Toronto and New York again. During the month of November Elman appeared in twenty cities; in December he gave almost as many concerts, and in January his appearances numbered twenty-one. All of these concerts were in different cities.

As may easily be imagined Mr. Elman was glad to have two days of rest in his New York hotel. A less robust person could not withstand the wear of so much travel, nor remain unruffled over the mishaps and hardships of it. Delayed trains, cold waiting rooms, blizzards and other annoyances that are commonly supposed to bring out the "artistic temperament," all are taken with the best of spirit by the young violinist.

The seat sale will begin at the street railway offices Friday, March 24. The prices will be $2, $1.50, $1.00 and 50 cents.

HOME

Written for the
CHRISTIAN SCIENCE MONITOR

In defining the word "Jerusalem" in the Glossary of her epoch-making work, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures," Mrs. Eddy sets forth, as she so often does, first the view of the carnal mind and then that of spiritual understanding. In the latter sense we find the words, "Home, heaven." Heaven is the type and symbol of spiritual consciousness, as handed down through the inspired word of the Scriptures. Therefore the highest concept of home associates it definitely and finally with Spirit and not with matter. Yet every man's home and every woman's tends to take on a material form, and it needs the true idea of home to come to the earthly home in order to hallow it with the joys of heaven. Of this human home the Discoverer and Founder of Christian Science writes, "Home is the dearest spot on earth, and it should be the centre, though not the boundary, of the affections." (Science and Health, p. 58.) It would be hard to imagine a more practical and helpful interpretation than is thus conveyed. Without sacrificing anything worthy, protective or desirable in the human sense of home; without calling for any surrender of the affections, Christian Science bids those who love their homes extend this blessing by operating from a safe center. It is possible to take into an ever-widening circle the pilgrims who are momentarily adrift, to reach out a hand to those lost in the mist of personal sense, to include within the radius of action of such a home, the sick and sinning, the fearful, those stumbling in the dark or staggering under burdens of their own making.

The right idea of home was never more needed than at present to save mankind from its evil counterfeit. For one reason or another, associated with shifting social and world conditions, the old-fashioned home is disappearing and the new and true home, is not yet generally established. Left to its own devices, the earthly home easily falls into error of sense and self; it may become the center, not of the affections, but of temper and backbiting, of self-indulgence and pride, of envy and tyranny, in a word, a center of gratification for the five physical senses, instead of for the cultivation of wisdom and purity, love and holiness. As the foundations of the earthly home are shaken by the changes now manifesting themselves in economic conditions, the straying individuals must be given a sheltering perception of the true home. Christian Science shows each one how to establish a home for himself by living consciously in eternal Life, Truth and Love. Then such a one can never be without protection, and, even if seemingly bereft of friends and reduced to human loneliness, he or she can be spiritually aware of the presence and power of infinite good, and realize the encircling safety of home.

As in the earthly home the masculine and feminine qualities of mind can contribute naturally to each other's support and wholeness, so in the divine understanding of home, courage, wisdom, strength are naturally wedded to love and purity. Beauty and virtue, metaphysically understood, are co-related and mutually attractive. Thus, in that spiritual consciousness which is the true home, all the qualities of true being are to be found, sustained, nourished and cherished by the divine Mind.

Then what is it to be spiritually at home? Obviously it is to be conscious only of the qualities of Spirit and not of matter. "To be carnally minded" would be equivalent to being absent
